Introduction

I don't know about you but I like looking at sunsets. It doesn't seem to matter how bad a day it has been for me, or for anyone else on the planet, taking a few minutes at the end of the day to watch the sun drop below the horizon just calms the nerves and renews my sense of wellbeing.

During August, I have paid particular attention to the sunsets; attempting to catch a glimpse of the “new sun”, the one we are assured is called “Nibiru” that has been travelling through our solar system dragging its seven planets along with it.

As I sit at my keyboard, I realise that I am actually sitting at my keyboard. I am not sitting at another keyboard in some alternate universe. I have not been vapourised by the bow “shock-wave” that this sun Nibiru was reputedly pushing before it, destroying all life in the solar system.

Funny that.

But on the other hand, it looks as though the HGF (Human Gullibility Factor) has been working overtime.

For several months we have been warned by those who claim to have insider knowledge from the NSA, CIA, NASA and the Vatican telling us that Nibiru is on its way through our solar system wreaking its destruction despite any evidence that could support these claims.

O how I long for the time when humans finally wake up and re-integrate their souls back into their bodies because then we wouldn't have to put up with any more of this c**p.

A History of “Nibiru”

The name Nibiru is most usually associated with the translations of the Annunaki material by Zecharia Sitchin. Sitchin was acknowledged as the world's leading expert at translating ancient Sumerian “Cuneiform” writing into English.

In the 1960's, Sitchin began translating a collection of clay tablets that were reputed to be about 5,000 years old. These tablets state that the story they tell was dictated to a Sumerian scribe who accurately recorded the story being dictated to him.

*Note: the story was dictated to a scribe therefore it had to be dictated by “someone”. This someone is never identified in the story the clay tablets tell. If, as claimed in the story, the information was the actual history of humanity then the history would have been recorded as it happened. In other words, the history was common knowledge amongst all of the people; so why was it necessary for a story to be dictated to a scribe?

The answer is that it is just that, a story and not reality*.

I have commented on the lack of truth and the lack of validity of this dictated story many times in my books and essays and so am not going to repeat the story here.

Enough to say is that it is a complete fantasy deliberately designed to mislead people in the current times into believing that our “creators” are an alien race – known as the “Velon”.

Within this dictated fantasy story is the “legend” of the planet Nibiru. Please note the word planet.

The Velon/Annunaki fantasy story claims that Nibiru is a “travelling” planet that enters our solar system every 3,600 years.

Several of its orbits have caused problems within our solar system, destroying one planet with the Earth, and the asteroid belt, being made from the debris of this collision.

According to Sitchin's translations and calculations, the last time that this fictitious planet entered our solar system was about 2,200 years ago (about 200 BC). This means that the next orbit is not due for another 1,400 years from now.

Are there any human traditions that have a record of a “travelling planet”?

No there are not. Chinese records, Egyptian records, Celtic traditions, Native American traditions, Aboriginal traditions, Inuit traditions, Eskimo traditions – not one of them tell of a planet that travels in and out of our solar system.

Is there an ancient Earth people who speak of a planet called Nibiru?

Yes, there is. This is the ancient Assyrian Empire centered around the ancient city of Babylon.

Except, as far as the ancient Assyrians are concerned, the name Nibiru was their name for the planet Jupiter in our own solar system although the Assyrians possibly spelled it “Neberu” – meaning “The Ferry”.

However, the fear-mongering that has been going on over the past few years, especially in recent months, refer to a sun called Nibiru that has entered our solar system, destroying all in its advance.

Quite why Nibiru had changed from a single “travelling planet” to a sun with seven orbiting planets has been impossible to track down.

There does not appear to be any reason whatsoever to explain why Nibiru has changed from a single planet to a whole solar system – at least none that I have been able to find.

The only explanation seems to be that a fictitious travelling whole solar system engenders far more fear in people than a fictitious single travelling planet does.

Why Try to Make People Afraid?

For the last 1,700 years, there have been those on the planet who see themselves as an “elite”.

In order to control the population and to make them believe what this elite wants them to believe, the elite have found that by far the best way is to make people afraid.

By creating situations of fear, especially the fear of things that do not exist, the elite have created a society that is made up of individuals that are extremely gullible and can be forced to act in ways which go against their intrinsic nature.

There are many, many examples of this behavior throughout human history, both in the past and in the present.

From the total annihilation of whole societies who refused to accept the teachings of the Vatican<sup>1</sup> to the myth of man-made global warming and climate change<sup>2</sup> to the myth of international terrorist groups<sup>3</sup>. All actions taken by those who consider themselves to be of the “elite” to create fear in those the elite consider to be “useless eaters”.

With fear, comes control – if you can make people afraid then you can control them. If you control the people, you can make them do whatever you want even though it is not in the people’s best interests to do so.

Ever since the Roswell Crash in 1947, another fear has been added to the elite’s arsenal – “Aliens”.

Everything from Orson Wells’ radio play of H.G. Wells’ book “The War of the Worlds” through the “Alien” movies to the movie “Independence Day” are all designed to make us believe that there are thousands of non-terrestrial races “out there” and all of them are out to kill humans.

The truth is that none of the races with which we share our Universe have developed the kind of technology that could be described as weapons. We’ll come on to this later.

However, the race known as Velon do have serious intentions as far as the Earth is concerned but it is the human elite who have created the weapons necessary to bring the Velon plans about.

Sitchin is not the only one who knew about the Annunaki (the Annunaki are a sub-race within the Velon species. The Velon have sub-divided themselves down into six races:- Annunaki, Hathor, Jjundaa, Johnaan, Oa and Mila. These racial divisions are along the lines of humans dividing themselves up into Japanese, German, French etc. or Jewish, Muslim, Buddhist etc.).

In the mid 1800’s a new “Rite” was written for the Freemasons called the “Palladian Rites”. This new set of Rites applies only to Freemasons of the 33rd level.

In this Rite, God did not Create humanity; humanity was created by Lucifer (the name “Lucifer” literally means “The Illuminated One” or “The One Who Brings Illumination”).

The “consciousness” of the Velon (Velus) also calls “himself” Lucifer.

From what I have been able to find out about the Palladian Rites, they state that the Annunaki created mankind under the direction of Lucifer.

Given that the 33rd level Freemasons are controlled by the Illuminati, all actions taken by the elite are to gain favour from their “god” of Lucifer (Velus).

The Velon see themselves as “god’s chosen people” who should live on “god’s chosen planet” – namely Earth and so Velus has manipulated the elite into carrying out Velus’s plans. These plans are to remove the bulk of the human population off the planet – except for the 500 million they would keep as “slaves”<sup>4</sup>.

The elite seem to believe that they can prove themselves at least equal to their “god” and in order to do this they have been developing genetic research – the original name for genetic research being “Eugenics”.

What better way to prove to your “god” that you are at least their equal than to create a new human species of your own?

In order to bring about their plans, the elite have to subdue the existing human population and make them believe that genetic research is a good thing.

In order to achieve this, the elite are trying to make people believe that this research is the only way in which a number of human problems can be solved:

- The world’s population number is out of control and rising exponentially.
- The only way in which the world can be fed is through genetically modified crops or, more recently, genetically constructed meat grown in a laboratory.

- The illnesses that people suffer can only be cured by “gene therapy”.

As well as many other “reasons” why genetic research must go ahead.

Whilst at the same time hiding the fact that the human population has literally halved since 1996 (7.4 billion in 1996 down to 3.8 billion in 2013<sub>5</sub>).

The real reason why people are starving in the world is because of artificially raised global food prices.

As someone who has worked as a psychic surgeon for over 35 years, I can state categorically that we all have the ability to cure our own illnesses without the need even for pharmaceutical interference let alone gene therapy – all attempts at gene therapy have resulted in the patient’s immediate death.

All of these claims, made by the elite, result in the creation of a state of fear.

A fearful population is easily controlled and manipulated.

A fearful population forgets about their true purpose – to re-integrate their soul back into the body.

Given that this fear-mongering applies primarily to the westernized world, is it any wonder that so few people in the west were able to meet our December 21st 2012 deadline?

Even the latest crop of “whistleblowers”, particularly “Snowden”, are adding yet another layer of fear<sub>6</sub>.

We need to snap out of our state of fear and really look at ourselves and the world around us.

Fortunately, there are many who are waking up to the state the elite have forced upon us and are seeing through the lies and manipulations.

But not enough.

The western world is still too far behind those in the non-westernised world and we need to catch up quickly if we are to succeed in fulfilling our destiny.

Extra Terrestrial Races

Given that so many people are waking up to the fact that we do not live in a life-less Universe, there is a huge amount of confusion over who these other races are and what their intentions are.

This topic is another region where the elite have deliberately set out to mislead and to confuse as well as to generate fear.

If you look through the internet, you will find literally thousands of web pages dedicated to “aliens” and their evil intent and actions against the Earth and humans.

According to these web sites, there are several thousand alien races, all with exotic sounding names and exotic sounding home planets.

Virtually all of these web pages are wrong.

Virtually all of these web pages are disinformation put out by the elite to confuse and mislead.

There are not thousands of races.

None of the non-terrestrial races have developed weapons.

Only one of the non-terrestrial races has a bad intent towards the Earth, the Velon, and even these have not developed weapons that could kill humans.

So who are these non-terrestrial races and where do they come from?

To understand the answer to this question, we have to take an overview of how our Universe came into being and developed (for greater detail than we have space for here, see “Synthesis”).

The Beginning

There is a “Creator”, one that thinks, one that wonders, one that has the energy potential to bring “It’s” wonderings into reality.

All that a Universe is is the “Thought” made real.

Our Universe was the first to be Created and it was Created around the energy patterns that give every soul Created to be in this Universe the absolute right to choose their own destiny – freedom of choice.

Freedom of choice is inherent in every form of life that exists within this Universe and it cannot be taken away – it can only be given away.

What the Creator uses to bring It’s thoughts about is energy. Everything that we see on earth or in the night sky is comprised of energy – humans see everything as solid, 3 dimensional objects because our brains and sensory systems are tuned to see things that way (see below).

The most common form that these Created energy patterns take is with consciousness or soul energy. Everything that exists is conscious in one way or another. The Universe is conscious, the galaxies are conscious, the solar systems are conscious and planets are conscious.

It is consciousness that makes the Universe work and explore the Creator’s questions.

There is only one fundamental state of being that exists and that is soul, or consciousness, energy. All else is comprised of these energies in combination.

The “envelope” that encloses this Universe is made up of thirteen beings, thirteen souls, who maintain the balance of energies within this Universe and act as co-creators. The Akashic calls these beings “The Thirteen”.

The Universal envelope was Created 14,376,279,395 years ago (as of 2013). Into this envelope were placed the souls who make up the galaxies and planets.

However, in order to explore the Creator’s questions, free-moving and free-acting souls were required and their Creation began 100 million years ago.

For more details of this whole process and the various races, see: “The Universal Soul”, “The Human Soul” and “Synthesis”.

The Non-Physical Races

The first races to be Created for this Universe are constructed of pure soul energy. They have no physical form or density and this is why the Akashic calls them the non-physical races. They were all brought into being about 100 million Earth years ago.

There are six of these races, all originating from very different parts of the Universe.

They do not need any kind of food, as they draw nourishment from the energies around them. They do not need any kind of craft to travel as they just have to think themselves somewhere and they travel instantly along the thought. They can travel in this way from one side of the Universe to the other in less than the blink of an eye.

Although there are six of these races, we would not be able to tell the difference between them.

The difference in energy potential between these races and humans is so vast that we cannot detect their presence or communicate with them when they are in their natural state.

Ninety nine point nine percent of the souls that are in human form originate from one of these six races.

The Semi-Physical Races

All of these races were brought into being about 30 million Earth years ago. It is with the semi-physical races that our problems of identification really begin.

These are beings who do require craft to travel (UFO’s) and have given rise to the problems of identification of who is who and from where they originate.

There are surprisingly few of these races but each of them has spread out from their home planet and their home galaxy and live on numerous worlds.

The problem with names is that they can confuse. Some beings have identical appearances but claim to come from different planets and therefore different origins; whereas in reality, they have the same “soul origin”. This is why, when describing the different races, I use their soul origin name – it avoids a great deal of confusion.

Another thing to bear in mind is that the sighting of UFO’s and alien contact is a very distracting, albeit fascinating, subject. Given that our aim, as humans, is to re-integrate the soul back into the body by the end of 2012, it was felt, by the Earth and Her guardians, that the number of UFO visits were distracting too many people away from their purpose.

At the end of the year 2000, the Earth asked all of the races, particularly those known as “Greys” to stop visiting Earth. These races have honoured the Earth’s request and so since 2000 very, very few UFO’s have entered the solar system.

This means that:

Since the year 2000, ninety nine percent of all UFO sightings and abductions are of military origin. In other words, people’s experiences of sighting strange craft have been of craft of human military origins. Experiences of being abducted by “aliens” are abductions carried out by the military.

There are seven “semi-physical” races in total.

By semi-physical I mean that they have a physical form and a physical density. To each other, these races seem as physical as humans do to each other but if you had one of these beings standing in front of you in their natural state, the chances are that you would not know they were there let alone see them.

The reason for this is that the human brain and human senses are unable to bridge the gap between our state of being, the energy patterns at which we exist, and the energy patterns at which the semi-physical races exist.

However, the semi-physical races can change their state of being. When they enter our solar system, they have access to the range of energies that exist here. If they choose to do so, they can make use of our “physical” energy range to alter their energy patterns and make themselves visible to us or even physical enough for us to touch them.

The semi-physical races are listed here in no particular order.

NGC 584

NGC 584 is just an astronomer’s catalogue number. It stands for Newly Graded Catalogue. The galaxy NGC 584 is located in the constellation of Cetus and is an unknown (to humans) distance from the Earth.

The reason why the Akashic records them in this way is because the name these people have for themselves is unpronounceable by the human voice box and, in written form, their name does not translate into any human alphabet.

Their original home world is an ice planet where temperatures can drop to close to absolute zero (minus 273 deg. C).

They are approximately 2ft 6in to 3ft tall (0.8m to 1.0m). In appearance they look like a two year old human child – slender arms, legs and body with the head being proportionately slightly larger. Their skin is a reddish-brown colour. They are able to alter their energy patterns to, at least temporarily, live in any environment.

The NGC 584 have taken on the role of master geneticists. They hold a record of every form of life that has ever existed in this Universe and are capable of modifying it to suit the conditions on any planet.

They have been visiting and working with the Earth for over 25 million years. Their craft are cigar-like in shape and are also usually coloured red.

The Pleiadeans

As their name suggests, these beings originate in the star system we call the Pleiades.

In appearance, they are the most similar to humans and average between 6ft and 7ft (1.8m to 1.9m) in height. They also have male and female forms although they do not sexually reproduce.

They could be described as the Universe's "diplomatic corps" in that they are usually involved in everything that occurs within this Universe.

They have visited the Earth on numerous occasions and have four "mother ships" in permanent orbit around the Earth. These ships are there by the Earth's request.

The Pleiadeans monitor activities on Earth, particularly the use of nuclear weapons.

When one of the super-powers has come close to firing a nuclear missile, craft launched from these mother-ships have ensured that the missiles cannot be fired usually by cutting all electricity to the command centre.

The Pleiadeans live on many worlds in many galaxies.

Other names by which they are known include Ummites and Plejaran.

Their ships are saucer-shaped or saucer-shaped with a raised "bridge". The ships in permanent orbit are shaped like a rounded square.

When two Velon ships managed to enter our solar system, it was the Pleiadeans who removed them.

The Sirians

These beings originate from the star system we call Sirius.

They are about 5ft (1.5m) in height with grey/green skin. They have large round black eyes and should not be confused with the "Greys".

The Sirians have also had long-term contact with the Earth as well as some humans – particularly the Dugon people of north west Africa.

Theirs is a technological role in that they are master technologists and can design and build any "machine" that could be required for work within the Universe.

Crystalline

As their name suggests, these life-forms look like quartz crystals.

They live either individually or in collectives that look like crystal "glaciers".

Given their "body" form, they do not physically travel but can project their consciousness – an ultimate form of remote viewing – across virtually the whole Universe.

Their home world is so far away from Earth that we have not even identified it let alone given it a name or catalogue number.

They have made contact with psychics on Earth but only on extremely rare occasions.

The Greys

This race is the basis for so much confusion about "aliens".

They have been called by many names which include: Zetas, Regillians, Reptilian and many, many more.

Again, they originate from a galaxy that we have not identified and so they remain known as "Greys".

The name originates from their skin colour which is generally a uniform mid grey. They appear to have large, "pointed oval"-shaped black eyes but this is not true. Their home world has a particular set of energy patterns that require them to give themselves eye protection whenever they leave their planet. The black eye appearance is as a result of this protection. When they remove their eye protectors, their eyes are yellow with vertical irises.

This eye shape and appearance seems to be the main reason why they have sometimes been called "Reptilian".

The Greys are divided into two forms, both with almost identical appearances except one form is about 3ft 6in (1.2m) in height whilst the other form can be up to about 6ft (1.8m) in height.

They have been virtually constant visitors to Earth and our solar system for the past couple of million years. They came to our attention after the Roswell Crash as it was a Grey ship that made the headlines – a number of other ships from other races also crashed over New Mexico on that day but it is the Grey ship that became the most well known.

Following that crash, the Greys have been in almost permanent contact with the American military who have allowed them to build bases on Earth in exchange for their technology. The Grey bases are built underground in order to ease their eye problem.

The Greys have been responsible for a number of “Alien Abductions” as they are studying human life. There are reasons for their interest in the human body which relates to their own physiology but it must be stated that they have not killed any humans and most of the abductions attributed to them have actually been carried out by the military and not the Greys.

Since 2000, the Greys have generally complied with the Earth’s wishes and not entered our solar system.

Note: it is widely reported by abductees that the Greys travel with beings who look like praying mantises. I have searched the Akashic in great depth to try to identify these beings. The Akashic does not record any such life-form existing anywhere in this Universe. The only conclusions I can reach is that the praying mantises are either some kind of artificial life-form (mechanical robots or bio-robots) or a type of hologram.

The Blues

The Blues are another race whose home galaxy is too far away from Earth for us to have identified it.

These beings are called the Blues as their bodies are covered in short blue hair – the only race who have hair on their bodies.

They are about 2ft 6in (0.8m) in height with barrel-shaped bodies.

The Blues are also interested in genetic research and have visited earth on many, many occasions to study the forms of life that exist here.

They also work with some humans who have healing capabilities.

The Blues also tend to travel with the Greys and help the Greys with their physiological studies of humans.

Those are very brief descriptions of six of the seven semi-physical races.

All six races have only helpful and beneficial intent towards humans and the Earth.

Stories of abductions involving body mutilations, blood-letting or cannibalism by any of these races, particularly the Greys, are totally disinformation or

The abductions, and the horrors inflicted, are carried out by the military and make it appear as though it is the Greys who are responsible.

I would repeat again:

None of these races have developed any form of technology that could be described, or used, as a weapon.

None of these races have any harmful intent towards either the Earth or towards humans. Claims to the contrary are all disinformation.

*Note. Virtually all of the souls that exist in human form originate from the non-physical races. These souls have come to earth to experience what it is like to take on physical form and physical density.

If you kill a human, the soul leaves the body, hangs around for a while and then reincarnates – if this is what that soul chooses to do – by starting a new life in a new body that is born in the normal way.

Another option for humans is for their souls to leave the solar system and return to the realms of the non-physical races – to return to their soul origin.

In this way, all of the souls that make up the non-physical races are about 100 million years old and are, effectively, immortal. The only way in which these souls can “die” is to choose to return to the Creator or wait until our Universe no longer exists.

With the semi-physical races, the situation is very different.

They were Created about 30 million years ago and their soul is integral to their bodies. In other words, if they are killed their souls have nowhere to go. They cannot reincarnate in the way that humans do and so they must leave the Universe and return to the Creator; they have no other options.

Given their state of being, they have not developed any technology that is capable of killing them – it would not only kill the body but also the soul. Deliberately destroying the soul would be against the Creator and nobody is prepared to do that. *

Since the year 2000, the Earth has requested that the semi-physical races do not make visits to our solar system that are not absolutely necessary. The semi-physical races have complied with this request. This accounts for the huge drop in UFO sightings since that date.

However, the number of UFO sightings have been increasing in the last couple of years.

This increase is due entirely to ships built by the military.

The development of “flying saucer-shaped” craft was begun in the Second World War by Nazi Germany at their research facility at Peenemunde. The man behind these developments was Werner von Braun who was brought out of Germany at the end of the War and worked in America to develop its space programme.

Add to that early development the understanding learned from downed alien ships and we have a new breed of ultra secret craft flying through our skies but they were built and are flown by human crews.

There is nothing new about top secret aircraft flying our skies that generally go unnoticed by people – remember that the “Stealth Bomber” flew for 25 years before it was made public by the military.

What shapes do newer secret “planes” take? Whatever shape they are, they are responsible for the vast majority of UFO sightings in recent years.

*****

The Velon

The seventh semi-physical race is, of course the Velon.

I have said more than enough about these beings both above and in my books and previous essays so there is no need to describe them here.

One of the biggest problems that has been brought about by the Velon is their use of channeled messages to numerous human channels on Earth.

Again, I am not going to list the individuals, organisations, committees, federations and several thousand races that the Velon have claimed to be but, fortunately, since the 21st of December 2012, the number of channeled messages that originated from the Velon has dropped drastically.

This begs the question of where the disinformation about the “sun” called Nibiru ploughing its way through our solar system originated.

There seem to be a number of people publicly claiming that they have “inside information” that governments are deliberately hiding this information from the public, but who are they working for?

I must admit that I am having difficulty answering that question but it all points towards the elite attempting to generate even more fear but, this time, the fear is aimed more at those who are beginning to become aware of the other races and aware of their human potential.

It appears to me to be to be a deliberate attempt to slow down the movement towards soul re-integration.

Star Gates

A great deal has been made about the existence of “Star Gates” into, and out of, our solar system. Another word for a star gate would be “portal”. But what is the reality?

Our solar system is unique. Nowhere else in our Universe does the combination of energy frequencies that make up our solar system exist.

As we saw above, the Universe is made up of a combination of frequencies that allow for the existence of several forms of life – the combination of frequencies allow the non-physical races to exist and a different combination of energies allow the semi-physical races to exist. But on Earth, the energy combinations are entirely different to both of the other states of being.

In order to bring about fully physical forms of life, an area of “containment” was required.

We could not be directly connected to the energetic realms of the non-physical races because we would then exist in a state no different to theirs.

We could not be directly connected to the energetic realms of the semi-physical races because we would then exist in a state no different to them.

So to create a new state of being – a physical state – an area of the Universe had to be partitioned off to ensure that the experiment of physical life was not contaminated by the energy patterns from which the other regions of the Universe were comprised.

Our solar system is deliberately located on the edge of nowhere. We are located where we are in order to be separated from the rest of the Universe and, as we are an “experiment”, we also needed to be located in a region where there was very little in the way of other life as there was a chance that we could become “contaminated” by other energies.

It is for these reasons that our solar system is “contained” in an energy “bubble”.

This bubble contains all of the combination of energy frequencies that compress space, time and light to the frequencies that correspond to a “physical” state of being.

This bubble is shaped a little like a rugby ball and contains 396 dimensions – a dimension is a measure of energy frequencies and our “bubble” is limited to this number of dimensions as they correspond to the energy patterns of physical existence (the Universe contains a total of 39<sup>39</sup> dimensions – that is the number 39 followed by 39 zeros).

Whilst we needed to be totally separate from the rest of the Universe, the other races also needed to have access to our solar system. The non-physical races needed access, as they are the primary soul origins of the vast majority of humans. The semi-physical races needed access in order to provide us with assistance should we require it.

So there are two “Star Gates” into and out of our solar system.

One relates to the position of the stars on the “belt” of the constellation of Orion. This star gate opens directly into the rest of the Universe and the energy patterns of the non-physical races.

The second star gate opens through the constellation of Draco to the energy patterns of the semi-physical races (the actual gate is located in the triangle created by the stars of Grumium, Nodus Secundus and Aldhibah just below the “head” of Draco).

These are the only two access points into and out of our solar system – no other star gates or portals exist.

In recent years, the Velon have attempted to persuade people to build new “portals” into and out of the solar system – all of those attempts failed.

On the 9th of December 2009, an attempt was made to use the HAARP station located on the island of Tromsø in northern Norway – the “Norwegian Spiral”. This attempt also failed.

There were similar attempts made using HAARP around the same time as the Norwegian attempt as well as an attempt using the particle accelerator in Cern on the Swiss/French border.

All of these attempts failed as there is insufficient energy available within our solar system to build a new portal or star gate. This is also quite deliberate. The energy patterns we have available to us are strictly limited. It was always feared that someone would come along and attempt to build a new opening in our enclosing “rugby ball” and so limiting the amount of energy available to us prevents the construction of such a portal.

If there was a sufficient energy potential available to allow the construction of a new portal, and someone attempted to build one, the opening of such a portal would destroy our solar system and destroy all of the hard work we had put into finding out how physical life works.

As one of the questions asked by the Creator of our Universe was “could life exist at physical densities?” then creating a new uncontrolled portal would not only destroy our solar system it would also destroy the Universe (one of the primary reasons for this Universe to exist is to explore physicality. If the potential to explore that question no longer existed then there would be little point in the rest of the Universe existing – see my books for a more detailed explanation of this possible problem).

The solar system has been closed to the Velon ever since they began to cause problems. They want a portal to be built so that they could circumvent the solar system defences and go against the wishes of the Earth. That cannot happen.

So given our rugby ball energy bubble and the limited number of star gates, how could the sun Nibiru, and its seven orbiting planets (which do not exist), have entered our solar system?

It cannot, it is impossible for anything to enter our solar system except through one or other of the existing star gates.

Even if Nibiru, either planet or sun, did exist, it would be comprised of energy frequencies that would be incompatible with the energy frequencies of our solar system and therefore could not enter.

But, let us also look at this Nibiru situation from a practical viewpoint.

Let us assume for one minute that the story is true and that a new sun has entered our solar system and is heading towards Earth.

One of two things is going to happen:

1. If Nibiru’s orbit is bringing it into the solar system from behind the sun and we cannot actually see Nibiru from Earth, it should, by now, be having a strong influence on the Earth.

The last I heard was that Nibiru is now in an orbit roughly equal to that of Jupiter. Given that the Earth is approximately an equal distance from both the sun and Jupiter then we should already be seeing an increase in light levels and an increase of heat as Nibiru’s energy was added to that of the sun’s.

2. If Nibiru’s orbit brought it into the solar system so that it was on the Earth’s side of the sun then we would not have any nighttime.

The energy of Nibiru would mean that the half of the Earth that is orbited away from the sun would now be having the full effects of Nibiru’s energy and therefore be illuminated meaning that there would be no night anywhere on Earth.

So far, I cannot detect any influence from Nibiru whatsoever either on Earth or anywhere else within the solar system and there is absolutely no evidence at all that there ever will be any influence from Nibiru on the solar system or the Earth.

Conclusion?

Total disinformation.

Incidentally, the predictions state that Nibiru will begin to destroy the life on Earth somewhere between the dates of the 17th to the 26th of August 2013.

So, either way, we should know the truth of this in the very near future.

If I have misread the situation and we do all die before the end of this month, if you want to tell me off, I will be sitting on a deckchair on the 2nd planet in the Crystalline system sunning myself – they have very good beaches and palm trees there!

Footnotes

1. The first to realise the effectiveness of instilling fear into a population in order to control them was the Vatican.

Very early in its history, the Vatican adopted a policy of “if you don’t believe what we tell you to believe, we will kill you”. This policy reaching its peak with the genocide of the Cathars between 1209 and 1255 where an estimated one million people were killed.

Unfortunately, it is still possible to instill fear into the bulk of a population by using lies to mislead them.

2. One of the biggest lies used by the elite to instill fear into most of the population has been the myth of man-made global warming and the concept that humans can take actions to prevent the Earth’s global temperatures from rising.

The Earth has always undergone temperature swings to meet Her requirements for the life that inhabits the planet. In this way, the current average global temperature is about plus one point five degrees Celsius but, in the past, global temperatures are known to be as high as plus six degrees Celsius.

The reason why the date 1850 is used by the elite as the base line for measuring temperature rise is because that is the last year of the “mini-ice-age” that began around about 1450 – this was when average global temperatures dropped as low as minus two point five degrees Celsius. 1850 was the last time that the Thames froze sufficiently to hold one of the winter fairs made famous by the novels of Charles Dickens.

In 1850, average global temperatures rose above zero and continued rising until 1996 where the temperature has stabilised at about one point five degrees. Since 1996, the global temperature has dropped very slightly (by about 0.1 deg. C) and have not risen since (raw data from the Met. Office and analysed by Prof. David Bellamy).

3. I have carried out a great deal of research into so-called international terrorist groups such as al-Qaeda. The results are very interesting but not enough room here to list the references – if I can find this information, so can anyone.

-The “Red Brigade” and “Bader Minehoff Gang”, who blew up a number of targets in Europe in the 1970’s and 1980’s, turn out to be NATO troops.

-When Russia invaded Afghanistan in 1979, the CIA financed and armed al-Qaeda, as well as other resistance fighter groups, to cause trouble for the Russians. The CIA have remained in control of al-Qaeda ever since.

-Britain’s MI6 (also called SIS) admitted publically on the BBC evening news that they were responsible for the 2005 London bombings.

-In his book, “The Terror Factory: Inside the FBI’s Manufactured War on Terrorism”, author Trevor Aaronson points out that the FBI are behind most of the so-called terrorists that have been arrested in America in the last ten years. The FBI sets up the attack and then arrests the “terrorist” to make it look like the FBI is doing its job. It also, of course keeps Americans in a state of fear (Mr. Aaronson’s book reported in the World News section of Nexus Magazine Aug/ Sept 2013).

4. The reduction of the human population down to 500 million is the stated aim of the Illuminati. It is also the primary aim of the agreement reached at the United Nations Conference on Environment and Development (UNCED) that took place in Rio de Janeiro in 1992. This agreement has been signed by the governments of over 120 countries – in other words, it is law in all of these countries including the USA, the EU and Britain.

A section within the UNCED agreement is known as “Agenda 21” which presents guidelines on how the aims of the UNCED agreement can be achieved on a local level.

5. As of 13.36 on the 12th of August, the global population was officially:

7,171,596,400 (www.worldometers.info)

Yet, according to the Akashic the actual figure is around 3.7 billion; less than half that of the “official” figures.

When explaining about how the official figures are arrived at, the worldometer site states: “the current world population figure is necessarily a projection based on assumed trends”.

Note the words “a projection based on assumed trends”. In other words, the figures are, at best, a guess at worse, an outright lie deliberately intended to mislead and generate fear.

6. There have been a number of “whistleblowers” in the last couple of years who have provided information about how the secret services operate and how they monitor everyone’s communications. Most have been ignored by the media however, there is one that has gained great notoriety lately has been “Snowden”. His name is in inverted commas as I have to ask if it is his actual name.

For an in-depth analysis of his impact and what he is really up to, listen to the interview with journalist John Rappaport on Red Ice Radio.

One comment that struck me, from Rappaport’s interview, was that by telling everyone that the NSA monitors every phone call or email on the planet is that the impact is to make people self-censor their emails and phone conversations.

Self-censorship relates back to footnote 1. Self-censorship is the goal of everyone who wants to control the population – it is the greatest form of mind-control achievable.
